The Mark Thompson Company Graham, TX; Notice of Termination of Investigation

Pursuant to Section 221 of the Trade Act of 1974, an investigation was initiated on August 23, 1999 in response to a worker petition which was filed on August 10, 1999 on behalf of workers at The Mark Thompson Company, Graham, Texas.

The petitioner has requested that the petition be withdrawn. Consequently, further investigation in this case would serve no purpose, and the investigation has been terminated.

Signed in Washington, D.C. this 6th day of October, 1999.

PennzEnergy Exploration & Production L.L.C., Currently Known as Devon Energy, Formerly Known as Pennzoil Exploration and Production Company, Houston, and Midland, Texas; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on August 3, 1999 applicable to workers of PennzEnergy Exploration & Production L.L.C., formerly known as Pennzoil Exploration & Production Company, Houston, Texas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on September 29, 1999 (64 FR 52540).

At the request of the petitioners, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New findings show that in August, 1999 PennzEnergy Exploration & Production merged with Devon Energy and is currently known as Devon Energy. Findings also show that worker separations occurred at the Midland, Texas location of PennzEnergy Exploration and Production. The workers are engaged in employment related to the production of crude oil and natural gas and provided office and management services.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to correctly identify the new title name to read "PennzEnergy Exploration & Production L.L.C., currently known as Devon Energy, formerly known as Pennzoil Exploration and Production Company", Houston, Texas and to cover the workers at the subject firm's Midland, Texas location.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of PennzEnergy Exploration & Production L.L.C. adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-36,526 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of PennzEnergy Exploration & Production L.L.C., currently known as Devon Energy, formerly known as Pennzoil Exploration and Production Company, Houston, Texas (TA-W-36,526) and Midland, Texas (TA-W-36,526A) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after June 22, 1998 through August 3, 2001 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974:

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 26th day of October, 1999.

Sappi Fine Papers North America, Inc., Including Leased Workers of Springborn Staffing Services, Westbrook, ME; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on December 2, 1998, applicable to workers of Sappi Fine Papers North America, Inc. located in Westbrook, Maine. The notice was published in the Federal Register on December 23, 1998 (63 FR 71165).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information provided by the company shows that some employees of Sappi Fine Papers were leased from Springborn Staffing Services to provide administrative support function services for the production of coated graphic freesheet and specialty paper at the Westbrook, Maine facility. Worker separations occurred at Springborn Staffing Services as a result of worker separations at Sappi Fine Papers North America.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending the certification to include workers of Springborn Staffing Services leased to Sappi Fine Papers North America, Inc., Westbrook, Maine.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Sappi Fine Papers North America, Inc. adversely affected by imports.
